

Sermon Recap 🎬

Pastor Tim's sermon "Legacy" on Memorial Day underscores the importance of leaving behind a spiritual legacy rooted in faith. He contrasts heritage with legacy, urging the congregation to focus on passing down values and faith rather than material possessions. Emphasizing the transmission of faith to future generations, he stresses the role of parents and grandparents in shaping the spiritual upbringing of children. Using the analogy of a relay race, he highlights the necessity of a seamless spiritual handoff between generations, urging believers to remain steadfast in their faith journey.

Ice Breaker 🧊

If you could have an unlimited supply of one thing for the rest of your life, what would it be and why?

Discussion Questions 💬

- ▼ What is the difference between heritage and legacy, and how do they relate to your faith?
  - In the sermon, heritage refers to the values, traditions, and culture handed down by previous generations, while legacy refers to what is left behind, including faith, ethics, and core values.
  - How can you honor your heritage while also leaving a godly legacy for future generations?
- ▼ How can loving God wholeheartedly define our legacy, as mentioned in Mark 12:28-31?
  - Jesus responded to the question about the greatest commandment by emphasizing the importance of loving God wholeheartedly, and Pastor Tim explained that this should be the center of our lives and legacy.
  - What steps can you take to ensure that your love for God remains the central focus of your life, shaping your legacy?
- ▼ Why is it important to pass on our faith to future generations, and how can we do so effectively?

- The sermon mentions the spiritual illiteracy prevalent in many homes and the necessity of training children in the right path (Proverbs 22:6).
  - What practical steps can you take to invest in the spiritual growth of your children or grandchildren?
- ▼ Considering the unique challenges faced by Generation Alpha, how can older generations invest in and impart spiritual guidance to them?
- Pastor Tim mentions the tech-savvy and diverse nature of Generation Alpha, and the importance of the handoff between generations as shown in Psalm 78:1-7.
  - How can you be more intentional in connecting with the younger generations in your community or church, and sharing your spiritual insights?
- ▼ How does the analogy of a relay race in Hebrews 12:1-2 apply to our spiritual legacy?
- The sermon compares the spiritual handoff between generations to a relay race, emphasizing the need to remain focused and finish strong.
  - In what ways can you remain focused on your spiritual race, and how can you encourage others to do the same?

Prayer 🙏

- Request any personal prayer needs from the group.
- Ask for strength and guidance to live in a way that honors our legacy of faith.
- Pray for wisdom in how we might best pass this legacy on to the next generation.
- Seek God's help to prioritize spiritual treasures over material ones.